With a history dating back to 1665, Rogaška has amassed 350 years of expertise in the art of glassmaking. The products crafted by this venerable establishment serve as a testament to unwavering tradition and unparalleled quality. Rooted in the town's enduring glassmaking legacy, Rogaška artisans adeptly harness natural raw materials, fashioning them into enchantingly transparent glass that exudes luminosity, purity, and dazzling beauty. This harmonious blend of creative expression, adherence to natural principles, and mastery over glass properties characterizes their approach.

Rogaška seamlessly integrates centuries-old craftsmanship with cutting-edge technology and contemporary design, elevating the traditional artistry with a modern touch. Present-day glassmakers, utilizing advanced techniques and technology, remain captivated by the intricately adorned and uniquely shaped pieces crafted by their predecessors.

Distinguishing Rogaška from its competitors are its exquisite designs, masterful craftsmanship, and an exceptional crystal recipe. The crystal products cater to those who appreciate the dynamic forms of noble crystal, capturing the interplay of light within its depths.

A collection of various wine glasses, including a large snifter, a smaller tulip-shaped glass, and a tall flute, are arranged on a reflective surface. A wine cork lies in the bottom left corner. The background is softly blurred, showing hints of a brick wall and a green bottle. A semi-transparent brown banner with the word "Oenology" in white serif font is positioned in the center-right.
